

Tiburon International Film Festival

The Tiburon International Film Festival seeks to provide a greater understanding of the world and its many cultures through the artistic medium of film

Women are the Answer

Sat August 13

1:30pm-3pm

Documentary, Australia / India

Director: Fiona Cochrane

Population growth has been left out of the climate debate because it is considered controversial, yet it is one of the most important factors. The global population has passed the 7 billion mark and India will soon overtake China as the most populous nation in the world, but one state in southern India has found the solution: Kerala educates its women. The unique history of Kerala and 'the Kerala Model' is outlined, using it as an example of achieving population control in developing countries without coercion.