

Who are our Top Predators?

Sat, March 19
11:30am-2:30pm

San Francisco Bay is one of the most unique and truly beautiful places to live in the world. Part of what makes the Bay so special are the top predators that help keep our unique ecosystems in balance! Join us for this special event to discover who these top predators are, and find just how complicated the food web is.