The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) as part of an interagency effort is accepting comments on draft changes to the 2020 National Wetland Plant List (NWPL) for 27 species and their draft 2020 wetland ratings by region. The 27 species and their draft 2020 wetland ratings by region, as well as the Federal Register Notice, can be viewed at the NWPL homepage, <http://wetland-plants.usace.army.mil/>, under “2020 NWPL Update Information.” A link to provide general or species-specific comments is also available at this location.

USACE is also seeking comments regarding the administrative change to the South Pacific Islands subregion and the NWPL update process. Comments will be accepted through May 24, 2021. All submitted comments and information will be compiled and sent to the National Panel for their consideration. Comments will be accepted through May 24, 2021.
